

BIG ATTENDANCE
PROMISED TODAY

Appearance of Sun Shortly Before Noon Bids Fair for Breaking of Records

RACE PROGRAM IS VERY FAST

Entry Lists Are Large and Good Contests Guaranteed by Fair Officials

At 1 o'clock today the attendance at the interstate fair was 3,500, according to the turnstile figures and it was C. S. Van Auker's confident prediction that the total for the day would at least be 7,000.

This will eclipse last year's record for the opening day which was held down by a chilly drizzle.

At 1 o'clock the turnstiles recorded 3,500 attendance each day this week," said Mr. Van Auker this morning. "At 1 o'clock the turnstiles recorded . . . attendance and this figure will be greatly increased as the afternoon progresses."

While "probable showers" was the prediction given by U. S. Weather Observer Thompson for Wednesday that official this afternoon announced that it was "just as probable" that it would be fair—all of which pleased fair officials.

So numerous are the hog entries this year that work was started this morning an immense canvas arena to house the contestants. Stalls are being built outside the sheds and a large tent will cover them.

The 2:30 trot will feature Wednesday's race card.

Alexander, the horse of C. L. Hood of this city, which has developed phenomenal speed at other fairs, is due to participate in this event and his work is being awaited with interest by local horsemen.

A near riot occurred this afternoon when a score of dogs entered in the La Crosse Kennel club's show broke loose and scattered about the grounds. They were finally rounded up and were back, securely clamped to their stalls, by one o'clock.

All preparations have now been completed for the interstate fair which opened today and all indications are that La Crosse Day, which is today, will see one of the largest crowds ever assembled on the grounds. Business houses, factories, the schools, the city hall and courthouse are all to close at noon to allow everyone to attend the fair.

Aside from a few minor details, all of which were attended to this morning, every part of the fair was in first class shape when the gates were opened. By afternoon everything was running smoothly with every indication that this will be one of the most successful fairs in the history of La Crosse.

As this is La Crosse Day and there are no excursion trains running into the city, practically all visitors at the fair will be local people with few out of town visitors on the grounds. In former years the first day of the fair has always seen the largest local crowd on the grounds and as the day's program this year has been made especially attractive there is every reason to expect that the attendance figures will eclipse other records.

The council, at its last meeting, voted to make the wagon bridge free of toll throughout fair week so that visitors from Minnesota could come over without paying. This will doubtless prove a popular move as Minnesota people always visit the fair in large numbers.

In addition to the various exhibits, which are exceptionally good this year, an excellent program has been prepared for the race track. Then there is the pike where the Capital City Amusement company will present its shows which are conceded to be among the best.

All Booths Taken

All room has been taken for exhibits in the art building so some interesting displays are certain to be seen there. The stock exhibit promises to be of much interest to those interested in this line while the poultry and kennel shows have entries which will serve to make them a feature.

Some of the best races ever seen in La Crosse will be run at the grounds this week judging by the list of horses which is on the program. During the entire afternoon a complete brass band will render selections in the grand stand while between heats of the races some excellent athletic events will be staged near the track. Thus La Crosse Day promises to be of interest to every citizen and many will doubtless take advantage of the opportunity to witness the attractions offered by the association.

The race program, which promises to furnish a great deal of interest, is as follows for today:

URGES RAILROADS
TO HELP FARMERS

Editor of Agricultural Paper Speaks at Conservation Congress in Kansas City

THEY ARE INTERDEPENDENT

Says Cheap Hauling of Fertilizer Would Be of Direct Benefit to Roads

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26.—In an address before the National Conservation congress here today, Herbert Quick, editor of Farm and Fireside, Springfield, Ohio, charged the railroads of the country with the duty of aiding in the development of the farms before giving consideration to dividends. His subject was "The Farmer and the Railroads."

To show the interdependence of the farmer and the railroads he said: "One cannot exist without the other. When the farmers succeed in wresting a good crop from the earth, stocks go up in Wall street. A hot wind in Montana affects Great Northern and Northern Pacific on 'Change; and when the railway fails to furnish cars for the carrying of the crop, that failure affects the notes of the farmer at the banks. For better or for worse, the farmers are irrevocably wedded."

Mr. Quick asserted that the railway may properly adopt the policy of hauling, or may properly be forced to haul certain public necessities at or for less than cost, so long as on the whole job of transportation they are allowed to earn legitimate profits.

Problems for the Future

"I do not believe," he said, "that in the long run the profits on the fertilizer traffic should be made directly out of their haulage. I do believe that the time will come when no transportation folly will rank as greater in the eyes of our railway managers than that of allowing rolling stock to remain idle while there is a chance to get loads of ground lime, ground phosphate rock, or manure at almost any rate. I am not unaware of the various private interests that would demand and secure monopoly prices if the railways should transport these things at low rates or even if that were possible; but this is not the time for the discussion of those things. They must be dealt with by the statesmanship of the future. Institutions must be gradually molded to the end that the agriculture of the nation may be enabled to flourish; for on its agriculture and the status of its agricultural population in the last analysis rests the welfare of the nation and its railroads."

Mr. Quick discussed the conservation of the elements that make the aridity of the soil, which include nitrogen, potash and phosphorus, the supply of which in a large part is a transportation question.

"Limestone is found along the lines of every railroad," he said. "It is almost as common as gravel. It can be ground cheaply, and cheaply shipped. It should be furnished to the farms at gravel prices. Burned lime is sold at almost prohibitive prices and thousands of farmers who know their needs are deterred from satisfying them because of poverty. This is a problem which enlightened statesmanship should solve in the interests of the nation, and one to the solution of which a railroad system operated in the interests of the national welfare would surely address itself."

May Stop Exports

"The real remedy for the drain of phosphorus lies with the government. We are forbidden by the constitution to stop shipments abroad by means of an export duty, but we have the right to stop exports entirely, or to limit them. Our ethical right to refuse to divide the phosphate treasures with the needy agriculture of the world may be open to question; but we might surely demand that the foreign deposits be worked first for the foreign demand. The shipment of our phosphates abroad, with the certainty confronting us that at some future time we shall have to re-import the same commodities, involves an economic waste to which the world should not be subjected. And the railroads ought, in their own interests, to adopt every policy legally open to them to keep the phosphate rock for the use of the farms within their own transportation territory."

The fertility of the prairie states, said Mr. Quick, has been sapped by fifty years of grain shipments.

"This era," he said, "should be succeeded by the golden age of American milling. The wheat fields of Canada stand ready to send to us fertility to replace that which we have shipped to Europe; and our transportation system should be used to the end that it shall be retained here. The Hudson Bay basin would thus, during its period of soil exploitation, return to the Mississippi Valley what we have sent to the hungry soils of the old world."

"SYSTEM" STRIKE
NOW UNDER WAY

1,500 Shopmen of Illinois Central Walk Out; Backed by Federation

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—What is believed by labor officials to be the beginning of the strike of the system federation including craft unions, occurred today when 1,500 shopmen of the Illinois Central struck at Memphis, Tenn., following the action of the clerks. It is significant, the officials of the federation say that, that the men walked out on their own initiative. They have, however, the support of the international presidents of the craft unions.

President J. W. Kline of the blacksmiths said today: "The international officers can no longer hold the men back. They demand the recognition of the system federation, and all contracts made by the railroad with these craft unions shall be made with labor as a unit."

Kline said that he received today from the Davenport, Iowa, convention of machinists the assurance that they would act in harmony with members of other crafts. Kline was in conference over the long distance telephone with heads of the craft unions on the Illinois Central, and he reported that men are striking all along the line. Traffic is delayed on the Illinois Central and it said that the road is refusing freight.

ADAMS CANDIDATES
SPEND NO MONEY

WEST UNION, Ohio, Sept. 26.—When Judge A. Z. Blair, who is franchised more than 2,000 voters for ballot bartering, opened court here yesterday, he heard some novel news for Adams county. In the recent primaries, the first election since Blair's house-cleaning, not a cent was spent by any of the candidates, according to their sworn statements filed with the election commissioners.

The filing of the statements was made necessary by Ohio's new corrupt practices act. Before Judge Blair disfranchised most of the voters in Adams county it was customary for $5,000 to $25,000 to be spent on each election.

There is but one case on Judge Blair's docket, that being against Charles Clark, indicted for vote selling. Clark is the only one of 2,000 who pleaded not guilty to the charge.

BALLOON BLOWS OFF
BOY'S EYEBROWS

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26.—Dean Ketchum, 11 years old, is minus his eyebrows and plus a hair cut as a result of the explosion of a toy balloon that he bought from a faker at the county fair. While playing with the balloon at his home he decided to stop a leakage by sealing the rubber with a flame. The instant the match ignited, the balloon exploded with a loud report and the lad's face was enveloped in flames. Aside from the singeing of eyebrows and hair he was not hurt. The boy is a son of L. L. Ketchum, chief engineer of the state capitol.

SHOOTING SHOCKS
DENVER SOCIETY

Former Chicago Broker Killed by Wife Following Months of Marital Trouble

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 26.—Declaring that she acted only in self-defense, Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson today defended her shooting of her husband, Charles A. Patterson, a tuberculosis victim, in Aurora, a suburb.

Mrs. Patterson is a member of a wealthy St. Louis family and her husband was formerly a well-to-do Chicago broker. They were married only two years ago. They have been here for more than a year and have moved in the most exclusive society.

The shooting followed months of marital troubles, culminating in the charges by Patterson that his wife had eloped to Europe with Emil W. Strauss, a rich Chicago clothier, in a suit for alienation of affections filed by Patterson against Strauss last Thursday. Learning that her husband had filed such a suit, Mrs. Patterson made an appointment with him by telephone and the shooting followed.

Mrs. Patterson declares she shot only when she feared her husband would carry out the threats which he frequently had made and kill her. She declares that the revolver which killed Patterson was carried by her husband when he met her to keep the appointment made by telephone and that in wrestling over possession of the weapon she must have shot him.

The whole affair is awful," declared Mrs. Patterson today. "My husband had the revolver. He always carried it and when we met and I showed him a clipping which told about the suit he had brought, he pulled the revolver out of his pocket and handed it to me and said: 'Why don't you kill yourself?' He then tried to wrest the revolver away from me. What happened was awful—terrible."

TAFT CHALLENGES
BRYAN IN SPEECH

CHANUTE, Kas., Sept. 26.—President Taft delivered a speech, lauding the supreme court and the anti-trust decisions from the rear platform of his train here today. Again he challenged W. J. Bryan and other critics of the court to produce a case which would not be condemned under the court's interpretation of the state which ought to be condemned. A typical Kansas crowd was out to hear the president. All about his car were little school children, with tin cups tied about their waists, tribute to the strict individual drinking cup law of Kansas.

AMATEUR AVIATOR KILLED

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—There was general protest today over a recurrence of the inefficient police control and lax management, familiar to nearly all aviation meets, which are blamed for the death of Dr. C. B. Clarke at Nassau boulevard yesterday. Dr. Clarke, it develops, did not have a pilot's license and, therefore, should not have been permitted to fly.

THREE ARE SHOT
BY A DESPERADO

Posse Hunts Man Who Terrorized Minnesota Town; Shoots His Father

WILLOW RIVER, Minn., Sept. 26.—Sheriff Hawley and a posse of seven armed men are searching towns surrounding Willow River for Earnest Eden, 26, wanted for attempted murder of three men in the saloon of Edward Olson and the later shooting of his father, yesterday afternoon.

Constable S. L. Mottie, 40, Willow River, is in the most serious condition, having been shot through the abdomen from the back and may die. Verne Rembleton, 25, mail carrier, was shot through the left arm below the elbow.

Another bystander, name unknown, was shot through the coat but was uninjured.

After five shots had been fired by Eden the young man backed out of the saloon door, ran a mile to his home and there shot his own father in a tussle over the revolver. The elder Eden was shot through the left elbow.

Eden then seized a rifle and ammunition and escaped to the woods. The surrounding towns have been notified and a close watch is kept on all strangers.

Eden is believed to have spent the night in the woods, and may have committed suicide.

SUSPECT PLOT TO DESTROY ALL NAVY

Fire in Hold of Another French Battleship Starts Demand for an Investigation

NUMBER OF DEAD NOW 435

Three Ships Anchored Near Ill Fated Liberte Are Rushed Into the Drydocks

TOULON, Sept. 26.—That the destruction of the magnificent French battleship Liberte may have been the result of a deliberate plot to destroy the entire navy is a suspicion that is rapidly gaining ground among naval officers today. The many mysterious fires in the naval arsenal here, the accidents to ships in drydock and finally, the fact that fire was discovered in the hold of the battleship La Patrie last night which required a desperate battle to extinguish, has caused the port officials to intimate that the most rigid investigation is necessary. It is understood that the French secret service has been ordered to take charge of the matter at once.

The fire on La Patrie was near the powder magazines. They were immediately flooded and the fire finally extinguished.

The naval officials now place the number of dead at 435, but these figures will be revised when roll calls are completed on the ships and the number of men on leave located.

Imprisoned in Turin

Five sailors, who were imprisoned in the forward turret, part of which is still above the water, were rescued this afternoon, none the worse for their experience.

While the drydocks were being hastily put into shape to receive the Verite, Republic and Democrat, all badly damaged as the result of the fire and explosion that destroyed the Liberte yesterday, detachments from every ship in the harbor were working on the wreckage of the Liberte, trying to rescue members of the crew known to be alive in the debris.

A repair ship is anchored alongside the mass of wreckage, only a small portion of which is still above water. The chrome steel plates are being burned through with acetylene. Work is necessarily very slow because of the danger of dislodging some of the plates and crushing the victims in their prison below the surface of the waters in the roadstead.

Minister of Marine Delcasse and Admiral Germinet, after personal investigation of the incidents in connection with the explosion and a talk with the survivors, rejected the opinion of the experts that deflagration of the "B" powder in the magazines caused the explosion. They say they are convinced that the fire started in the oil storeroom, among a quantity of high grade oil and turpentine.

Blame Higher Officials

There is a disposition today to blame the higher officials of the Liberte for being absent. The fact that the captain and the next two in command were away and that the warship was in command of a senior lieutenant injured discipline, it is claimed. It is also intimated that the best means were not employed in fighting the fire.

Had experienced officials been on duty, it is intimated, bunkers and magazines would have been flooded simultaneously with the fire alarm and an explosion would have been impossible.

The court of inquiry to determine the responsibility for the disaster will be named at once. It will consist of officers of flag rank and they will be ordered not only to fix responsibility, but to recommend changes in construction to prevent such disasters in the future.

The Toulon water front has been transformed into a vast hospital and morgue. Many of the victims are so badly mangled that recognition is almost impossible. In the temporary hospitals, hastily established, terribly burned seamen are being cared for. Of fifty injured sailors in the chief marine hospital, 25 have already died and few of the others can recover.

Later three additional seamen only slightly hurt were rescued from the wreckage, making eight in all recovered alive. The work of getting the dead out has then begun. Up to late this afternoon fifty bodies had been taken from the forward part of the demolished ship.

Requiem Mass Read Over Those Killed in Grade Crossing Accident

MORE DEATHS ARE EXPECTED

Jury Named to Investigate Cause of Accident; Families Are Left Destitute

NEENAH, Wis., Sept. 26.—Seven victims of the fearful grade crossing accident in which thirteen were killed and ten injured here were accorded a joint funeral at the St. John's Catholic church today. Rev. Father Kurzejka assisted by four priests from neighboring cities, read requiem mass for the dead. All were members of St. John's church.

Unable to grasp the awful meaning of Sunday's catastrophe at the Chicago and Northwestern grade crossing, the bereaved families were confronted with grim realities today when the mutilated bodies were transported to the various homes, the undertaker taking as many as six in one load. It was then that the affliction assumed its fullest significance to the grieving ones. Mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters—and in nearly every family of the unmarried men there are from six to eleven children—were broken hearted spectators, sobbing pitifully while the black velveted coffins were carried into the homes.

Several of the families of the killed will be left in destitute circumstances. In half of the cases the chief providers of the families were the healthy young men so horribly mangled.

Coming as it 'did so suddenly, there were not enough coffins to meet the emergency. A Fond du Lac firm shipped six, which arrived on Monday morning and which hastened the grim task of completing the morgue of its ghastly sight.

Two additional deaths of victims are momentarily expected.

Tony Kurmuskis has not regained consciousness since the accident. Anna Suchdotzky has internal injuries and her right foot was nearly cut off. Even if she lives, which is doubted, the physicians say amputation may be necessary.

Plan Thorough Probe

Coroner S. D. Baird arranged for subpoenas on Monday for the train crew. Conductor Edward J. Keigher, of Chicago, Engineer Frank Spooner, of Green Bay, and Fireman S. W. Kreuger.

The jury viewed the scene of the wreck and later the bodies of the dead. An adjournment was then taken until next Monday when Coroner Baird will make a thorough investigation.

The project entails a $1,000,000 expenditure, of which $100,000 is in hand.

SOUTH WOULD STAGE AD-PACKEY FIGHT

CADILLAC, Mich., Sept. 26.—Ad Wolga is being swamped with offers for his fight with Packey Mc-Farland since the calling off of the Milwaukee affair. He has received an offer from Promoter Fowler of Savannah, Ga., guaranteeing him $30,000 as his share, regardless of result.

Fowler wants to stage the bout in connection with the Vanderbilt cup races during Thanksgiving week. A record breaking crowd turns out for this event annually and with the lightweight champ and the aspiring champ as stellar attractions, every one of the 15,000 seats in the grandstand would be occupied, argues Fowler. Furthermore, the authorities would not interfere with the mill down there. Both Wolga and the manager, Tom Jones, look upon this offer favorably, as it gives Ad plenty of time to condition himself after his recent illness.

WELSH TO FIGHT IN RACINE—MAYBE

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—There is much speculation among fight followers today as to whom will be matched with Freddie Welsh, B.
lightweight, who signed yesterday
for a bout to be staged at Racine, Wis., October 20. Fred will meet Champion Ad Wolga in Los Angeles Thanksgiving day and it is believed the Racine bout is just to prepare him.

NORTHWESTERN TEAM LOOKS GOOD

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Coach Hammett of the Northwestern university football university football team prepared today to put his ten new candidates, received yesterday, through drills to tell what they are worth.
Hammett believes Northwestern will have a crack team this season.

CALL OFF MEET

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 26.—
The question of what cities will comprise the Wisconsin-Illinois league circuit next season, or as to who will succeed President Moll will wait until early January. These matters were postponed yesterday when magnates from Green Bay, Appleton, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Racine, Aurora, Rockford and Madison met here
and conducted routine business.

The Senator gave Hughes poor
support and the Naps won, 3 to 2.
Five double plays featured the session.

Nap Rucker again was in his element and beat Hendrix, Ferry, Camnitz, Gardner and the balance of the Pirate crew, by a score of 5 to 4.

DIAMOND DUST

Although they needed only one more victory to clinch their hold on the American league pennant, the Mack men dropped yesterday's game to the Tigers, 6 to 3. Mullin turned the trick.

McGraw's hired hands did their chores in nice shape, Crandell defeating the Reds by 2 to 0. Long Larry McLean, caught five Giants trying to steal second; none was successful.

Grand "Old Cy" Young out-pitched Richie, Cole and Brown, but an error, a stolen base and a single permitted the Cubs to defeat the Rustlers by 6 to 5 on a water-logged field.

They still are talking of sending Amby McConnell of the White Sox to the minors. He's hitting like a bush leaguer. Some days he only gets three hits, on others he gets four. What do they want?

Deacon Philippe will never pitch
for the Pirates again. The old-time twirling star will devote his entire time now to looking for promising players for Barney Dreyfuss' outfit.

As a former footlight star Mike is getting the "courtesy" of the "profession" for all the Rustlers and the Boston players all spend their evenings in free seats in the theatres.

The Red Sox swamped the Browns
again yesterday, Wood holding the tail-enders well while his teammates
slathered the pepper to all corners of the lot.

OSHKOSH MAN IS KILLED UNDER AUTO

NEENAH, Wis., Sept. 26.—One man killed, another badly injured,
was the result of an automobile accident on Oakhill cemetery road
just west of Neenah late yesterday.

Herman Johnson, an Oshkosh saloonkeeper, was killed outright, Harry Doman of Oshkosh, is in the hospital suffering severe injuries. J. M.
Riefstahl of Waukegan, Ill., the third occupant of the machine, was not injured. His escape was almost miraculous. The machine got beyond the control of the driver, and dashing into a deep ditch turned turtle.

A clean exterior is no criterion of the interior of a person; but it is at least a compliance with the scriptural injunction to avoid the appearance of evil.

WELLS AND JOHNSON ARE UNDER ARREST

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The pro-
motors of the Jack Johnson-Bombardier Wells fight having failed to announce abandonment of the contest scheduled for next Monday, Home Secretary Churchill today had both Johnson and Wells summoned to the Bow street court for tomorrow to show cause why they should not be bound over to keep the peace.

WHY NOT BE GAME?

Announcement is made that the racing committee of the La Crosse Motor Boat club has decided to break up the six-cylinder motor of the hydroplane "La Crosse" into sets of two-cylinder engines, and sell them for pleasure boats.

To many who are financially interested it may seem an unnecessary sacrifice to tear down this magnificent machine, the efficiency of which has been proven, and wreck
the work of a year toward a great racing boat, to represent La Crosse,
in order to realize immediate funds
with which to repay those who contributed toward the investment.

The money that went into the racing boat came from members of the La Crosse Motor Boat club and a few interested outsiders, in sums ranging from $2.00 to $25.00. A promise was made to return these contributions after the boat had raced and was sold.

Unfortunately the boat was not raced this season because the hull was faulty. The engine, actually turned 1300 revolutions—or 300
more than the manufacturers' guarantee. An increasing gear brought the propeller speed to 1600 revolutions per minute, giving a theoretic

cal speed of more than 40 miles an hour, and proved the engine's efficiency. A faulty hull, too small, too frail and ill balanced, prevented success. And now the Motor Boat club is bound by pledge to break up what undoubtedly is one of the greatest racing motors ever turned out in the west, and sell it, dismembered,
for ordinary pleasure boats.

Before doing this would it not be a good plan for the club's officers to cavass the contributors and ascertain whether or not they would not prefer to see another attempt made?

The organization could replace the faulty hull with a new and suitable
one, and next year, with practically no added expense, go out with a good chance to capture the western races?

Practically all of the expense is already incurred. A new racing hull could be built for a couple of hundred dollars. Even the manufacturer advises this course, promising success.

This is merely a suggestion. Although most of the contributors
"kissed their money good-bye" when they donated it, every one of them is entitled to its return. But if the Motor Boat club were to regard them
as stockholders, they might get their money back with interest a year later, and add to this the satisfaction of having retrieved the misfortune experienced at Dubuque.

Let's take a straw vote.

UP TO THE MEN

The decision of the Twentieth Century club to endow a women's ward
in the proposed tuberculosis sanitarium is an added evidence of the public spiritedness and generosity of this useful organization.

The women, in adopting the plan,
have set the pace for the men of La Crosse County. For two years we have been mooted a question which lacks the proverbial "two sides." The facts are not open to controversy. Conditions here demand that this institution shall be created.
Economy and humanity both support
the issue. No enlightened community longer seeks excuse for slavery
to a disease which the intelligence of man, with modest financial backing, has proved its ability to conquer.

La Crosse county is a rich commonwealth. With the unselfish and patriotic example of our women before us, will not the men of the county through their representatives
on the county board proceed to do their plain duty?

We believe that they will do so
with liberality and promptitude.

WHICH IS CORRECT?

In discussing the Standard Oil decision in which the supreme court
read into the Sherman act prohibition combinations in restraint of trade the exception that to be illegal such restraint of trade must be "unreasonable." Senator La Follette
declared that in his message of Jan.
10, 1910, President Taft had approved the position of congress in having expressly declined to embody
that same condition in the law.

Commenting upon this assertion of La Follette, President Taft in a recent speech said La Follette had misinterpreted the language of his message, and that he had not objected to the injection of the condition
as to reasonableness into the law.

Speaking of the Standard Oil decision
he continued:
"I believe those decisions have done and will continue to do great good to all the business of the country, and that they have laid down a line of distinction which it is not difficult for honest and intelligent business men to follow."

Reference to the January, 1910,
message to which Senator La Fol-
lette alluded, we find this language:
"Many people conducting great businesses have cherished a hope and belief that in some way or other a line may be drawn between 'good trusts' and 'bad trusts,' and that it is possible by amendment to the antitrust law to make a distinction under which good combinations may be permitted to organize, suppress competition, control prices, and do it all legally if only they do not abuse the power by taking too great profit out of business. Now the public, and especially the business public, ought to rid themselves of the idea that such a distinction is practicable or can be introduced into the statute. Certainly under the present anti-trust law no such distinction exists. It has been proposed, however, that the word

"reasonable" should be made a part of the statute, and that then it should be left to the court to say what is a reasonable restraint of trade, what is a reasonable suppression of competition, what is a reasonable monopoly.
I venture to think that this is to put into the hands of the court a power impossible to exercise on any consistent principle which will insure the uniformity of decision essential to good judgment. It is TO THRUST UPON THE COURTS A BUR-DEN THAT THEY HAVE NO PRECE-DENTS TO ENABLE THEM TO CARRY,
AND TO GIVE THEM A POWER AP-PROACHING THE ARBITRARY. THE ABUSE OF WHICH MIGHT INVOLVE OUR WHOLE JUDICIAL SYSTEM IN DIS-ASTER."

Reading the two utterances of the president, it becomes plain that he has squarely reversed himself, and the only wonder is how he could have had the hardihood to challenge
La Follette's assertion in the face of positive proof of its accuracy.

AN ACCIDENT

The destruction of the French warship "Liberte," entailing the deaths of approximately 300 men, is a catastrophe which entitles the French people to the sympathy of the civilized world.

Already reference has been made to the similarity of this incident to the destruction of the Maine in Ha-vanna harbor. To concede similarity, however, is to confess that the Maine was destroyed from within without blame to Spain, for the fate of the Liberte was plainly due to accident. With the French-German quarrel at a delicate state, it is probable some newspaper men could not resist the temptation to hint at a sensational plot, but the attempt to create out of the affair an international incident will no doubt fail.

Emperor William, of Germany,
was "on the job." He was the first national ruler to cable condolence
to his foe, the president of France.

Good Cupid Story

"Crabbed age and youth cannot live together," said Senator Davis,
appropos of an unhappy divorce suit
in Little Rock. "Whenever I hear of an old man marrying a young girl I think of the Cupid story."

"Cupid," indignantly cried a millionaire of 77 years—"Cupid would be powerless before such an iceberg
as yourself, miss. Why a score of Cupids armed with a hundred arrows, each could find no vulnerable
spot upon your heart of stone."

"The young and beautiful girl addressed tossed her head as she replied:
"No, they couldn't—if they used
an old bean to shoot with."—Washington Star.

A Ready Excuse

Commend us to the Scotch for resourcefulness. Dr. Black, at one time minister of the great Barony church
in Glasgow, Scotland, reports the Northwestern Christian Advocate,
was blind in one eye, but an industrious and watchful pastor. To one of his uncertain parishioners he said one day: "Surely, John, I have not seen you at church lately." To which John, with an eager and unfaltering innocence, replied: "But as sure as death, sir, I've been there every Sunday—only I'm sittin' noo
on your blind side."

About the biggest liar in the world
is the man who sends his "regrets"
to a five o'clock tea.

Railroad Man Writes Remarkable Letter

In 1903 and 1904, I was a terrible sufferer for about five months with kidney and bladder trouble. I could not sleep nights and was obliged to get up ten or fifteen times to urinate.
I passed mucous and blood continually. One doctor said I was going into consumption and gave me up to die. Had two other doctors but received no help from either of them and am sure I would have been in my grave had I not seen your advertisement in the "Daily Eagle Star." After taking several bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I was entirely cured.

In the last two years I have been a railroad fireman and have passed
two examinations for my kidneys successfully so that I know that my kidneys are in excellent condition now
as a result of your great preparation.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE KENSLEY,

1422 Mary St., Martine, Wis.

Personally appeared before me this 25th day of September, 1909
George Kensley, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

CHAPTER XXX.

The Turncoat.

It was late in the sunlit afternoon when there rode into the head of the street of old St. Genevieve a weary and mud-stained horseman,
who presently dismounted at the hitching rail in front of the little inn which he favored with his company. He was a tall man who, as he turned down the street, walked with just the slightest trace of a limp.

This traveler did not turn into the inn, did not pause, indeed, at any of the points of greater interest,
but sought out the little cooper shop of Hector Fournier. That worthy greeted him, wiping his hands upon his leathern apron.

"Eh, bien, then, it is Monsieur Dunwoode! Come in! Come in! I'll be glad for see you. There was those talk you'll would not come."

"Yes, I have come, Hector," said Dunwoode, "and naturally, I have come to see you first. You are one of the few political allies that I have left. At least, if you don't believe the way I do, you are generous enough to listen!"

"But, Monsieur, believe me, the situation here is difficult. I had a list here of twelve citizens of St.
Genevieve who were willing to listen to Monsieur Dunwoode tonight
in a grand mass-meeting; but now, talk has gone out. There is much indignation. In fact, it is plain—"

"What do you mean? What is going on?" demanded Dunwoode.

"Alas! Monsieur, it is with regret I announce that the majority of our citizens, who so dislike Monsieur Benton and his views, are much in favor of riding upon a rail, after due treatment of the tar and the feather, him who lately was their
do; that is to say, yourself, Monsieur!"

Dunwoode, his face grim, leaned against the door of the little shop.
"So that is the news?" said he. "It seems hardly generous, this reception of St. Genevieve to myself! It is too bad that my friend, Mr. Benton, is now here to share this hospitality of yours!"

"As I have said, alas! Monsieur!"
"But, now, as to that, Hector, listen!"
said Dunwoode sharply. "We will hold the meeting here just the same. We do not run away! Tonight, in front of the hall there."

"But why trouble about that?" he added, almost lightly. "What comes, comes. Now, as to yourself and your mother—and your wife!"

"And those baby?" exclaimed Hector. "Assuredly monsieur does not forget the finest baby in St.
Genevieve? Come, you shall see Josephine St. Auban Jeanne Marie
Fournier—at once, tout de suite.
Voilà!"

Hector was rolling down his sleeves and loosening the string of his leathern apron. Suddenly he turned.

"But, Monsieur," he said, "come,
I have news! It is a situation un-pen difficile, but it can not be concealed, and what can not be concealed may best be revealed."

"What news?" asked Dunwoode.
"More bad news?"

"Not in the least, as we of my household regard it. With monsieur, I am not so certain. It is quelque chose un peu difficile, mais
oui. But then—Monsieur remember—that lady, the Countess?"

"Countess? Whom do you mean?"
"Who but our madame, the Countess St. Auban in her own right? She who gave me my Jeanne—at Tailwoods, Monsieur!
Have you not known? She is here.
She is chez nous. Of wealth and distinction, yes, she has traveled in this country merely for diversion—
but the Countess St. Auban, yes, she pauses now with the cooper, Hector Fournier! Does one find such beauty, such distinction, such gentleness, such kindness, such courteousness elsewhere than
among the nobility?"

"When did she come?" demanded Dunwoode quietly.

"But yesterday, upon the boat;
without announcement. She is at this very moment at my house you understand, busy with that baby, Josephine St. Auban Jeanne Marie Fournier, named for the countess! But do not turn back! Monsieur himself has not yet seen the baby. Come!"

For one moment Dunwoode paused;
quietly, he accompanied Hector, making no comment. He limped just slightly. He was older—yes, and graver.

The mother of Hector met them
even before the gate was opened.
Her voice called to the door her daughter Jeanne, who was shaking hands with Dunwoode before he was half way up the walk. The ejacula-tions of Jeanne attracted yet another ear farther within the house.
A moment later Dunwoode saw pass
before the door a figure which he recognized, a face which called the blood to his own face. An instant later, forgetting everything, he was at the door, had her hands in his own.

"It is you!" he exclaimed. "How does it happen? It is impossible!"

Her face had more color than for days. "Yes, it is unexpected," she said simply, at last. "Everything is unexpected. But of all things possible, this it seems to me is best—
to come here—to rest for a time."
"You are passing through to St.
Louis?"

"Perhaps," she said. "My plans
for the moment are somewhat unsettled. I stopped off here, as no doubt you know, to serve as godmother to this baby of Jeanne's! It is an important errand."

"But monsieur has not perfectly examined this infant as yet," interrupted Hector. "See, it has the eyes of Jeanne—it has—"

"It is a darling!" said Josephine gently, and stroked the somewhat scanty hair of the heiress of the Fournier estates.

In some way, a moment later,
they were apart from the protestations of the fond parents. They found themselves alone, in the special apartment reserved for guests of distinction. An awkward moment ensued. Josephine was first to break the silence. Dunwoode could only sit and look at her, devouring
each line, each little remembered gesture of her. Yes, it was she—a little older and graver and thinner,
yes. But it was she.

"I was talking with Jeanne this very morning," she said. "She was telling me some story that you have been unfortunate—that there have been—that is to say—political changes—"

He nodded. "Yes. Perhaps you know I have lost my place with my people here? I am done for, politically."

He continued, smiling: "Just to show you the extent of my downfall, I have heard that they are intending to tar and feather me tonight—perhaps and give me a ride
upon a rail! That is the form of entertainment which in the West hitherto has generally been reserved
for horse-thieves, unwelcome re-sistants, and that sort of thing. Not that it terrifies me. The meeting is going to be held!"

"Then it is true that you are to speak here tonight—and to uphold doctrines precisely the reverse of what—"

"Yes, that is true," He spoke very quietly.

"I had not thought that possible,"

she said gently.

"Of course," she added. "I have been in entire ignorance of all matters out here for a year past. I have been busy."

TOBACCO TRUST PLAN TO DISSOLVE READY

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The plan
of reorganization of the American Tobacco company has been completed as a result of a series of conferences between the judges of the United States circuit court, Attorney General Wickersham and the attorneys for the trust. It was stated this afternoon that the plan will not be made public until it can be presented to the court. This will be done by means of a petition which will set forth the plan of dissolution and request the court formally to approve
it. Public hearings will then be conducted at which objections may be made and finally a revised mandate will issue which will be sent to the supreme court for approval.

Poor Guessers

"The new idea in business is honesty, openness, frankness," said Alton B. Parker at a dinner at Esopus.
"We used to conceal our plumbing,
and very poor, unsanitary work it was. We expose it now, and it is altogether sound, wholesome and satisfactory. Well, business is like that."

"When I think of some of the tricks that used to obtain in reputable business firms, I am reminded of the seaside auctioneer."

"This scoundrel once held up a $10 gold piece and said:
"Guess the date on this piece of money, friends. Make a guess and a small purchase, and the correct
guesser takes the coin."

"So everybody in the crowd guessed; everybody bought some worthless rubbish, and the dealer netted a huge profit. Then, at the end, he looked at the $10 gold piece, held it up and said:

"Now for it! Who guessed 1894?"
"Me! Me! Me!" cried every man
jack in the shop.

"The dealer smiled.
"Then you guessed wrong," he said, slipping the coin into his pocket.
"The date is 1812."—Washington Star.

To Properly Treat Obstinate Wrinkles

"Particularly where wrinkles and furrows are long and deep, the massage devotee is apt to rub too hard and too frequently," says Dr. Lim-oges. "Such treatment loosens the skin, causes muscles to sag and aggravates the wrinkled condition—
just the opposite result from what she seeks."

"Better than massage, or anything else, for the most obstinate wrinkles
and crows' feet, as well as the finest lines, is a formula well known in France, which American ladies may readily avail themselves of, as you will have no difficulty procuring the constituents from your druggists. It is this: One ounce powdered saxolite in one-half pint witch hazel.

Bathe the face, neck and hands in this daily. The effect is really marvelous, not only as to wrinkles, but also in case of double chin and baggy cheeks. The application is cooling, soothing, tending to relieve fatigue and insomnia."

MANY HUNTING LICENSES

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26. — In nearly all counties from which reports of the sale of hunting licenses have been received, the number issued this season is much larger than at the corresponding time last year, according to a statement by the state game warden today. In Douglas county, for example, over 400 more licenses were issued this year than in the same period of 1910, and in Dodge county the excess is over 200. This fact is attributed to the unusually plentiful supply of game.

TURNING THEM AWAY AT MAJESTIC

It is useless to dwell at length upon each and every act appearing on the bill at the Majestic the first half of this week. It is sufficient when one says, that all in all it is about the best show seen there this season. The big feature act, Paul Kleist presenting "The Land of Dreams," is the greatest novelty I have ever seen, being well worth the price of admission, and to think that one has the pleasure of having such good acts as the following thrown in as good measure, makes it about a one dollar show for only 10, 20 or 30 cents.

Emil Subers as "The Georgia Blossom" is a real minstrel with a fine singing voice. The Musical Norrises are seen in a clever act, and their 12x2 band is immense. Juggling DeLisle is one of originality and exceedingly clever. The act that is carrying off big honors and justly deserves every bit of applause it can and has been receiving, is Dainty June Roberts & Co. in "The Doll Maker's Dream." This is about the daintiest and sweetest of playlets ever presented in this city, and the dancing of the little lady is about the best ever; she surely deserves the title of the Pocket Edition of Mlle. Genee.

NORTH SIDE PAIR ARE WEDDED TODAY

Miss Agnes Naperasky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Naperasky, 306 Summer street, was this morning quietly married to John Ritter, 506 Mill street, in the Holy Cross church on the South side. The wedding took place at 7 o'clock. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, and the young couple left this afternoon for a short wedding trip. George Weber acted as best man, and Miss Martha Naperasky, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. Ritter is employed as shipping clerk at the Kratchwill candy factory.

POLICE GRAFTERS RUN FOR COVER

Stampede to Take Immunity Bath Expected to Reveal West's Greatest Scandal

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—A stampede of police grafters to take the immunity bath before William W. Wheelock, special counsel of the city civil service commission, is expected today to lead to one of the greatest police scandals the west has ever known.

Already Wheelock has in his possession the confession of a lieutenant of police, known as a grafter in the vice district, which is said to implicate three of the highest police officials in Chicago, in addition to a number of the "smaller fry."

Powerful politicians are at work to stop the civil service commission's expose and a test of their strength will come tonight when council will be asked to appropriate $10,000 to the commission for a continuance of the probe.

The confession of the lieutenant is said to be a complete account of the methods used in collecting police graft and protection money in the vice district. It is said to contain the names of three prominent police officials who were presented $10,000 automobiles by the gambling trust immediately upon their elevation to positions in which they could either permit or prevent gambling.

Mrs. E. Standorf, Rev. Litchfield is the M. E. pastor at Mt. Hope, Grant county.

Miss Stella Savage entertained the Five Hundred club Monday evening.

COPS PINCH GOAT; BUT—

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Two policemen were detailed to "pinch" a goat for eating grass from a private lawn in Evanston. "But"—chomped the cops when detailed. Before they captured the beast they were butted over a fence.

Looked the Part.

Sir Thomas Robinson, a wealthy Englishman of the last century, was a tall, uncouth man, and his appearance was rendered still more striking by his hunting dress, which consisted of a tight green jacket, buckskin breeches and a fur cap. He once set off in his hunting suit to pay a visit to his sister in Paris, and he arrived at the house while there was a large company at dinner.

The servant announced "Monsieur Robinson," and in walked this remarkable figure, to the amazement of the guests.

One of them, a French abbe, lifted his fork three times to his mouth and each time laid it down without tasting the food. Unable at last to restrain his curiosity he burst out eagerly: "Excuse me, monsieur, are you the famous Robinson Crusoe, so remarkable in history?"

Life's Three Questions.

The three great questions of life are, "Is it right or wrong? Is it true or false? Is it beautiful or ugly?" These our education should help us to answer, and in so much as it fails it will lack in reaching a proper physical and moral standard. When the college girl returns to her home, whether it be her parents' or her own, her college training should have helped her to answer these questions in relation to the fundamental needs of life, in food, clothing, and shelter. This education I believe the teachings of home economics to give. General culture not alone means the capacity to understand and appreciate, but to react on the resources and problems of modern civilization, and these problems in the large mean the preservation of health, the prompting of physical vigor, and the material well-being of the race.—Harper's Bazar.

Absorption Process Makes Faces Young

(From The Home Maker.) Success has at last come to scientists who for years have sought some effectual method of removing the outer facial skin in cases of unsightly complexions, which would be both painless and entirely non-injurious. The new process is so simple, the means so ordinary, so inexpensive, the wonder is that no one had discovered the same long ago.

It has been amply demonstrated that common mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store, completely removes, by gentle absorption, all the withered, lifeless cuticle, showing the youthful, rose-like skin underneath. The mercolized wax is applied at night—like cold cream, but not rubbed in—and washed off in the morning. The absorption also cleanses clogged pores, increasing the skin's breathing capacity and capillary circulation, preserving the tone, color and natural beauty of the new skin.

BEAUTIFUL, LUSTROUS, HEAVY HAIR AND NO DANDRUFF OR ITCHY SCALP

Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine and just try this—stops falling hair at once.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is sure evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing as 1v4u9R? the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Ten minutes after applying all the dandruff will disappear, all itching will cease and there will be no more falling hair. Millions of men and women use Knowlton's Danderine and they never have dandruff, itchy scalp or falling hair—they know that it keeps the scalp clean and healthy and makes the hair grow heavy, long and beautiful.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application you will say it was the best investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

RUNAWAY GIRLS RETURNED HOME

SPARTA, Wis., Sept. 26.—Artie Telford, 13, and Marie Ashbjornson, 15, whom it is claimed were induced to run away from their homes in Viroqua by an unknown man, were intercepted by the local police and returned to Viroqua.

One of the girls, it is understood, left a note for her parents in which she stated that she was going to Oklahoma to join a wild west show. It is claimed that they were urged to leave home by an unknown man who signed himself "Cousin Harry."

It is believed that the girls may have been the intended victims of a white slave conspiracy.

The girls refused to divulge the name of the man they were to meet in Sparta or to state where they expected to go from here.

CERTAINLY ENDS STOMACH MISERY

A little Diapepsin cures Heartburn, Gas, Sourness and Indigestion in five minutes

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment nor turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50 cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance. Should you at this moment be suffering from Indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can surely get relief within five minutes.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME SATURDAY

Local football rooters will have their first chance to witness a gridiron battle next Saturday, when the Highs meet the Normalites at the League mark. During the past three weeks the high squad has been rounding into shape under the coaching of Mr. Carter and is now in good condition to play a hard game. Most of the men are picking up in weight, as a result the team will be somewhat heavier than was first anticipated.

With a nucleus of nine old players and about thirty other good men to pick from, the possibilities of having another state championship team are promising. The entire squad will perhaps have a chance to play in the normal game, as Mr. Carter wishes to get a line on the promising ones. Although the high players are more experienced than their rivals, they are considerably lighter than the normalites, which makes the teams more even.

As yet Coach Carter has expressed no opinion as to the outcome of the game, but the high rooters expect their squad to win, while the normalites are just as firm in their belief that their men will be the victorious ones. Mass meetings are to be held at both schools to arouse enthusiasm, and it is expected that a large delegation of rooters from both schools will be present to witness the battle.

The schedule has been completed with the exception of the Thanksgiving game, which is pending until some camp sprouts have sprung up elsewhere in the state. The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 30—Normal at League park.
Oct. 7—Tomah Indians here.
Oct. 14—Tomah high school here.
Oct. 21—La Crosse at Chippewa Falls.
Oct. 28—Baraboo here.
Nov. 4—La Crosse at Sparta.
Nov. 18—Madison here.

TO TEST COWS AT INTER-STATE FAIR

Arrangements have been completed whereby patrons of the Interstate fair will be shown the methods of testing of dairy herds for quality of milk and for tuberculosis. The tests will be made Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 2:00 o'clock, in the booth of the Onalaska agricultural school. O. C. Hanson, who is in charge of the work of the County Cow Testing association, will make the tests. He will test two herds for the amount of butter fats in their milk, and will make tests and comparisons of the milk from a good herd and that from a poor dairy herd. A large number of farmers interested in the work of testing cows are expected to be in attendance when the testing is done.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

The first meeting of the Mission Study class of the First Congregational church for the fall was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Geo. H. Ray. There was an unusual large attendance. Mrs. L. C. Colman was the leader. At the close of the exercises the Woman's Union presented Mrs. Faville with a very handsome traveling bag. Many of the ladies present joined in filling it with toilet articles. It was as much of a surprise to Mrs. Faville as it was a pleasure to those who contributed the many pretty and useful articles. All crowded around while the packages were being opened and took as much interest in them as if they were their very own. Mrs. Faville leaves tomorrow for a trip to Connecticut where she will visit at the home of son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Faville.

TAFT PRAISES THE LATE CONGRESSMAN

HUTCHINSON, Kas., Sept. 26.—There was no political atmosphere about President Taft's speech at the Kansas State fair here today.

A dissertation on the history of Kansas and a brief appreciation of Representative E. H. Madison, whose death last week seriously oppressed the president, was his message to the insurgency of Kansas in the biggest speech he was scheduled to deliver during his visit here. None of the big issues of the day were mentioned and an academic discussion of the troubles of "bleeding Kansas" in the turbulent times of the slavery struggle, occupied practically all of the president's address.

ELYRIA, Ohio, Sept. 26.—Elyria is agog today over the coming marriage of Emanuel Lavigno, 25, an Italian employed at the factory of the Garford Auto company, and Louise Ely Garford, youngest daughter of A. ### TURKEY DEFIANT ITALY IS ARMING

Ottoman Empire Declares She Will Not Surrender Tripoli Without War

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The situation growing out of Italy's demands that Turkey surrender Tripoli to her was increasingly grave today. Turkey, speaking through her diplomatic representatives in the several capitals, has defied Italy. She has declared she will surrender none of her territory without trouble and expresses the belief that, even though she is without a navy, she can defeat any force Italy may try to hurl into Tripoli or other Turkish territory.

Official advices here say that Italy has in course of preparation an ultimatum for Turkey. It will demand the cession of Tripoli within the briefest possible period and will state emphatically that if this action is not taken, force will be resorted to.

The entire Italian fleet is mobilized in Palermo harbor waiting orders. All of the vessels are fully coaled and provisioned, their magazines are filled and their crews were greatly augmented. One report says that two Italian battleships are already cruising off Tripoli. If this is true, it is certain that they are under orders to intercept the vessels carrying the Turkish army corps mobilized yesterday for service in Tripoli.

In the hope of preventing a war that might be only the commencement of hostilities involving many other countries, most of the nations have advised Turkey to yield to Italy and accept a cash payment for the territory ceded. This advice has been indignantly spurned.

WOULD SEGREGATE DISPLAY PLANNED

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26.—Interest is being shown by agricultural authorities here over the suggestion of state-accredited herds to save cows from tuberculosis and other infectious diseases. Dr. Henry B. Favill, a noted Chicago physician, and president of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute, who formerly lived at Lake Mills and is the owner of a herd of Holstein-Friesians, made a valuable contribution to this subject in a recent paper, and declared that tuberculosis is more of a cow question than a baby question.

"The cow which is spreading tuberculosis from her own discharges must be separated," he said, "by death or segregation, from the others."

State inspection and mandatory compliance with registration rules for the herd will have the effect, he said, of inducing the dairyman to reap the advantage which comes from official recognition of a disease-free herd.

EXAMINATIONS TO OPEN CONFERENCE

D., Omaha, Neb., will act as presiding officer during the conference. Sessions will be held Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday.

The lay electoral conference will meet at the German Baptist church Friday morning and will continue their meetings until Monday. Several noted men from all parts of the country will be present at the conference.

MAJESTIC SHOW STILL BIG CARD

Packed houses witnessed the second day's performance at the Majestic theatre yesterday. At the evening shows every seat, including boxes, was taken. On every side nothing but hearty commendation of the bill is heard and critics unite in declaring it one of the most clever since the opening of the house this season.

Paul Kleist's spectacular novelty, "The Land of Dreams," is scoring unprecedented success here, while Emil Sabers' "The Minstrel Man" is a comedy producer of rare ability.

CONDON TO TALK BEFORE CONGRESS

Will Deliver Sermon before Notable Gathering of Prelates at Cincinnati

Rev. Dr. Robert Condon leaves tonight for Cincinnati, where he will take part in the deliberations and discussions of the Fifth National Priests' Eucharistic congress, which convenes there from Sept. 28 to Oct. 1. He has also accepted an invitation to deliver a sermon before this notable gathering which will include archbishops, bishops and priests from all over the country. Indeed, the presence of Bishops McSherry of Africa, Hurth of India, and Kappas of Luxembourg will lend an international aspect to the congress.

This invitation is a splendid recognition of Dr. Condon's power and ability as an orator and exponent of Christian doctrine by men authoritative in the church, showing that they rank him with the very best material the American church affords.

Sermons will be delivered by Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, Archbishop Blenk of New Orleans, Bishop Hartley of Columbus, and Bishop Schrembs of Toledo.

Dr. Condon will deliver the most important address at the last, but most impressive service before an open air gathering in the grounds of the archiepiscopal residence at Norwood Heights.

ENTHUSIASM AT THE CITY MISSION

The outlook for the City Mission grows brighter every day. The meetings show a steady increase in attendance, the whole-souled singing and earnest testimonies have a truer and more Christian ring. The meetings show great improvement and most gratifying results in the number of souls brought to Christ.

Superintendent Dewey wishes to thank the good, big hearted people of the city for their donations of clothes, shoes, etc.

Care is exercised in the giving of these garments, that the worthy ones of the city may be benefited, and to that end Mrs. Dewey will be at the Mission every Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock to look after the wants of the children.

Tonight the meeting will be conducted by Rev. Ramsey.

Thursday, Rev. Louis Magin of the First M. E. church, will be in charge, and on Sunday, Oct. 1, the Rev. W. H. Klaus, pastor of the German M. E. church at Garner, Iowa, will preside.

Special singing will be provided, and a splendid time is in anticipation.

A sincere and hearty welcome is extended to all, and Supt. Dewey urges all to come and aid in the work.

Commencing with Sunday, Oct. 1, meetings will begin at 7:45 p.m.

WARSHIP LIBERTE COST $12,000,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The ill-fated French warship Liberte, destroyed by an explosion in the harbor of Toulon yesterday, was one of three warships anchored in the North river during the Hudson-Fulton celebration two years ago, the others being Verite and Justice. The three were modern in every respect, having cost $12,000,000 each, and were the latest thing at that time in foreign warship construction.

The Liberte's turrets weighed 700 tons, but were so responsive to their electrical machinery that one man with a lever could spin them like a top. There were twin fourteen inch guns in each turret, each with a capacity, the experts said, of six shots a minute. The big warship was 439 feet long, 79 1/2 beam, with a normal draught of 28 feet. Her complete armament was four 14-inch guns of a special rapid fire type; ten 7.6 guns; thirteen 9 pounders; ten three pounders, and twelve half inch armor plates on the main turrets. There was an armor belt entirely around the ship of eleven inches thickness amidships and seven and nine inches respectively forward and aft. About this belt was another ranging from 10 1/2 to 5 1/2 inches.

Only six battleships of the French navy surpass the giant fighting ship destroyed. These latter are of the Danton class.

MOTORISTS FACE TROUBLE
WINONA, Minn., Sept. 26.—The police here declare they have sufficient evidence to cause the arrest of a party of motorists who on Friday night crashed into the farm wagon of F. W. Denzer, hurled Denzer and his daughter from their seat, probably fatally injured the two horses and shattered the wagon. The motorists were able to extricate the machine and fled without offering assistance to the victims, who were entangled in the harness of the struggling horses. The police investigation revealed a partially wrecked machine which gave them the clue. It is said prominent Winonans are implicated.

MINNEAPOLIS LEPROS ALLOWED AT LARGE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 26.—Ludwig C. Dyregrave, 725 Tenth street south, died at his home in Minneapolis last night. Coroner Seashore says that leprosy was the cause of death, and that Dyregrave had been suffering with the disease for twelve years. An autopsy will be performed at once.

During all the years that the man suffered with the disease he never consulted a physician so far as is known. He had of late been taking treatment from Christian Scientists. He was a tailor by trade, and of course had made clothing for many persons in the Mill City. His wife is dead but a son is employed in Minneapolis.

Algerian Bargaining.
Americans who travel in eastern lands are amused as well as aggravated by the business methods which prevail there. A recent traveler in Algiers concluded to buy a mule, and finally found one for sale.

He went to the owner, with an interpreter, and a dialogue then ensued, as follows:

The interpreter, with a yell: "I will give you ten dollars for that mule."

The Arab: "Ten dollars! Murder! Thief! Brigand!"

The interpreter: "I will make it eleven dollars. Do you hear, you scoundrel? I offer you eleven dollars for your mule, which will die in about a week. You are a robber and a thief to take that much; but I am a generous man, and I serve a great man, so I offer you eleven dollars, you scum of Africa!"

Then they both yelled and shook their fists at each other, and to the American it looked as if they were going for each other, hammer and tongs.

The row they made was terrible, but no one seemed to notice it.

Finally a bargain was struck, and then they fell upon each other's necks and embraced.

And the American got his mule for eleven dollars.

A man who thinks his wife ought to make her hats would have a fit if she offered to make his ties.

20 YEARS BETWEEN VISITS TO HOME

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Sept. 26.—Gerald Avery, for twenty years counted among the missing and supposedly dead, reappeared at the home of his brother-in-law, Major J. C. Burlingame of Lakota; ate dinner with his wife, who is keeping house for her brother, and has once more disappeared.

A score of years ago Avery went out of his home at Crary, Ramsey county, to secure a pail of water, and until his reappearance in Lakota he had never returned. The last heard of him was in Washington, D. C., when he registered as a member of the famous Coxey army.

Effort to glean information concerning his twenty years away from home was without avail, as he refused to tell anything, and he went away again without warning. Efforts that have been made in the last two days to discover him have also been unsuccessful.

CONFER ON RATE APPEALS

ST. PAUL, Sept. 26.—The attorneys general of Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Kansas met with former Atty. General E. T. Young of Minnesota and Thomas D. O'Brien, former justice of the supreme court, here yesterday and discussed the briefs being prepared by these states preparatory to the appeal to be taken on the Minnesota railroad rate cases.

While the conference was held by the attorneys general of the states mentioned with the special attorneys in the Minnesota rate case, their action will not be joined with the Minnesota appeal, according to E. T. Young.

The attorneys are on their way to Des Moines, where they will head a conference on the briefs which they are to prepare.

Outspoken Youth.

On a recent railway trip a boy of perhaps seven years and his mother occupied the seat directly in front of me. The boy kept up a running fire of questions as to the name of the next station. The mother was either unfamiliar with the name or too indifferent to be accurate.

When the station was reached the boy demanded the name and on receiving the correct answer said: "You told me a lie before." A similar conversation was several times repeated, the boy each time saying, "That's another lie," and finally he shouted: "You've told me lies ever since we started." A man seated near, becoming exasperated, leaned toward the boy and in threatening tone said:

"Young man, if you don't keep still a while I will throw you out of the window," and the boy, boldly facing the man, said:

"And that's another lie!"

All the bishops of these states, 13 in number, will attend the council.

SUPERSTITIONS OF THE HOME

Some of Them Are Traced to Domestic Economy and Others to Thrifty Habits.

The signs and wonders of the household have markedly diminished in the last quarter century. Many of them were picturesque and diverting. Few of them were taken seriously enough to be harmful.

It is easy to trace some of them to their sources in domestic economy. A group of them, for example, had to do with the approach of an unexpected guest. The scissors or a knife sticking up straight in the floor, a dropped dish cloth, or a long floating stem in a cup of tea—all these foretold arrivals.

They had the agreeable double effect of keeping the household up to a high mark of preparedness and of breaking monotony by the pleasure of anticipated society. If the prophesied caller followed the dropping of scissors the sign received an increased authority. When the promise failed, the failure was promptly forgotten.

Another group of superstitions rests upon the thrifty habits of former times. To pick up a pin brought good luck. To neglect to snuff a candle until it was wasted by a "weeper" was sure to involve misfortune. An overabundance of tea grounds in the cup spoke of careless measures, and so threatened debt. A second helping of food before the first was eaten foretold an undesirable beggar.

The woman's mind, if left to itself, turns naturally to believe the make-believe. A housewife likes to pit her unreason against her reason. The mere act of absurd illogic gives variety and charm to an otherwise dull afternoon of housework, and nobody is the worse for stretching the arm of imagination to include a little mild superstition of the old fashioned sort.

DEVIL BIRD HAS AWFUL CRY

Natives of Ceylon Are Not to Be Blamed for Being Terrified by Its Scream.

Of all the awe-inspiring sounds emitted by wild creatures, none, it is said, is to be compared to that of the "devil bird" of Ceylon, whose cry has been likened to the scream of a human being undergoing the most frightful torture. Naturalists have identified this bird with the brown wood-owl found in Hindustan.

The natives of Ceylon regard the cry of this bird with superstitious horror, for, it is claimed, its scream heard at night presages the most dire misfortunes.

A British official of the Ceylon civil service has given some study to this curious bird. Its ordinary note, he states, is a magnificent clear shout like that of a human being heard at a great distance, and producing a fine effect in the silence of the night.

But the sounds that have earned for the bird its bad name, and which this officer reports he heard to perfection but once, are said to be well-nigh indescribable, the most appalling that can be imagined, and scarcely to be heard without a shudder. It has been compared to the cries of a boy in torture, whose screams are being stopped by strangulation.—Scientific American.

A Fallible Father-in-Law.

Two of the gilded youth of Providence, R. I., were in Newport and came upon a newsboy.

"Let me have a paper," said one of them, giving the boy 50 cents.

"I can't change that," said the boy.

"Lend me a nickel," the gilded youth asked his companion.

"Oh, bother, let him have the 50 cents."

"No, indeed! You let him have it if you like. My father-in-law is not dead, and yours is."—Life.

WISCONSIN NEWS

FIRE CHIEF CLANCY ENDS HIS DEFENSE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 26.—The defense of Fire Chief Thomas A. Clancy before the police and fire commission ended late yesterday afternoon with testimony tending to disprove charges that a state senator had received a portion of the 1905 fund collected in the fire department to defeat the Bletcher bill.

Former State Senator Julius E. Roehr, who was mentioned by Dr. J. J. McGovern, brother of Gov. McGovern, as the legislator implicated by Chief Clancy in an alleged confession, emphatically denied that he had ever received money from Chief Clancy, or others, to defeat the bill.

James C. McLeod, who was secretary of the 1909 grand jury, testified that the grand jury made an exhaustive investigation and was unable to learn that any money had been given to a legislator to oppose or favor the Bletcher bill.

The taking of testimony ended at 5:30 o'clock and both sides announced that they had rested. The arguments of the attorneys will be completed today, according to Attorney W. H. Bender for Mr. Clancy.

CHURCH BOX IS ROBBED

WAUKESHA, Wis., Sept. 26.—Late Sunday afternoon a stranger entered St. Joseph's church and walked up one of the outside isles, where he paused and knelt before the statue of St. Joseph. After lighting one of the candles he relieved the money box of its contents. He repeated the act before the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the other aisle, and after making several unsuccessful attempts at procuring the money in that box, he finally succeeded. He was discovered, and before assistance arrived he had escaped.

FIND STEPHENSON WITNESS

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26.—W. W. Powell, a newspaper writer, who was wanted as a witness in the Stephenson investigation, which is to be opened on Oct. 21 in Milwaukee, and whose whereabouts could not be learned by Assistant Sergeant at Arms Webber of the United States senate, returned to Madison on Monday and said that he would accept service of the papers as soon as they could reach the city.

FIGHT INSANE ASYLUM

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 26.—There is talk at Waupun of seeking an injunction against the building of the new state hospital for criminal insane in that city. A delegation of business men waited upon the board of control recently to protest against locating the institution there. It was reported that the institution could not be inclosed with walls, and it has been feared that escaped prisoners might be a menace to residents.

EXPLAINS WAUSAU ACCIDENT

WAUSAU, Wis., Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury investigation into the cause of the collapse of St. James Catholic church several days ago has returned a verdict that the collapse was caused by the crushing of the northwest pier of the structure, which supported one of the columns supporting the dome, and that the pier was of faulty construction. Albert Schultz of Wausau, one of the injured, died on Sunday night, making two victims of the accident.

COMPANY HELD RESPONSIBLE

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of Harry Johnson, fireman, who was electrocuted Saturday, today rendered a verdict blaming the Madison Gas and Electric company for the accident and censuring the company for having failed to insulate its wire properly.

Johnson's body has been shipped to Wittenberg, Wis., for interment.

BOYS IN REAL BATTLE

ROCHESTER, Minn., Sept. 26.—In a battle fought with air guns and four 22 caliber rifles between two bands of boys late Sunday, Arnold Nelson, aged 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Nelson, Rochester, was perhaps fatally wounded.

The two parties first fired on each other accidentally and then kept it up, each thinking that the other meant bodily injury.

TURKO-ITALIAN WAR MAY COME

Italy's Raw Attempt to Seize Tripoli Starts Jingle of Arms in Constantinople

OTHER POWERS INTERESTED

Hostilities May Set Spark
to Magazine All Europe Is Sitting
Over

VIENNA, Sept. 26. — All Turkey is fighting mad. The attempt of Italy to seize Tripoli has awakened the country to the fact that she must fight to maintain her territory, and all classes of Turks are rallying to the support of the government. All of the reserves have been summoned to the colors and the order expelling all Italians from Turkish territory is in the hands of the premier, signed by the sultan, ready to be issued as soon as it is certain war must come.

The Turkish commanding officers have been instructed to place all of their commands on a war footing. Advice received here today say that if Italy invades, the fighting will be most bitter and unless Italy is able to land more troops than the early reports indicate her commanders think it will be needed to conquer and retain Tripoli, they are likely to be overwhelmed.

No confirmation is as yet obtainable of the report that the Navigazione Generale Italiana's steamer Regina Margherita has been seized by Turkish officials at Mersina, Asia Minor, but the report is accepted as true in government circles here.

Old Sores Reopened

Italy's attempt to acquire Tripoli by sheer strength has caused alarm here and in most of the capitals of Europe. It is feared that it will open anew the Mediterranean problem just at a time when it seemed certain that it was to be settled.

There are 50,000 Italians in Turkey and their financial interests are very large. The port, it is understood here, has sent a curt message to Italy saying all private property will be considered subject to seizure if any armed Italian force shall land at Tripoli.

First Army Corps Ready

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 26.—The first army corps is being mobilized for embarkation to Tripoli to reinforce the 30,000 Turkish troops already there, in readiness to oppose an Italian seizure of the colony.

Might Start General War

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The advice from Italy and Turkey are causing gravest concern in all capitals of Europe. Hostilities at this time between the two nations might furnish the spark to set off the powder magazine on which Europe has been sitting for a decade. The attempt of Italy to seize Tripoli is resented here, but the position of the British government will be one of stern neutrality for the present at least.

Throughout Italy the cry "On to Tripoli" has been raised by the friends of the government as a good plan to put an end to the industrial discontent and to the conditions resulting from the spread of the cholera. The move has been popular as, owing to the hostility now evident in America toward Italian immigrants and the absolute lack of opportunity at home, the poorer class of Italians are unable to find a place to dispose of their labor.

Turk is Ideal Soldier

A new Italy in Africa has been the ambition of the present Italian government for some time, and it has been consistently pointed out that inasmuch as Turkey has no navy, she would prove an easy prey to Italian aggression.

This belief is not accepted here, however. British officers despise the Italian as a soldier and declare that, despite his indolence, the Turk is an ideal fighting man and that when Italy tries to operate outside of the protecting zone of the guns of her fleet, she will court disaster.

Then the population of Tripoli is Musselman and can be depended on to aid Turkey. It will never submit tamely to Italian domination and the result will be, even if the Turks are finally defeated, almost constant civil war.

Latest advice from Rome say that an expedition is ready to start toward Tripoli.

Urge Italy to Yield

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The English and German governments are urging Turkey to yield to Italy's demands concerning Tripoli. It is said both England and Germany will try to remain neutral in the event of a Turko-Italian struggle, but European internal politics are so involved that it is never safe to predict who will or will not be drawn into such conflicts, and with the Moroccan difficulties apparently just about to be settled, diplomats are sorry to see fresh trouble. It is agreed that Turkey could make short work of Italy were it not that the former has no navy, while Italy has a fairly strong one, and ships will be needed to wage a Turkey-Italian campaign.

Italy in a Fever

ROME, Sept. 26.—Italy is torn by dissension concerning the threatened clash with Turkey over an Italian grab of the Turkish province of Tripoli. Socialists and other extreme radicals throughout the country are holding mass meetings of the population in a fever of patriotic enthusiasm and urging the government to maintain a firm hand.

ATTENDANCE GOOD AT VIROQUA FAIR

VIROQUA, Wis., Sept. 25.—The Vernon county fair closed Friday, after a very successful year's meet. Throughout, the attendance was large, and the gate receipts were correspondingly large. The biplane which was expected to arrive Wednesday did not come, on account of a bad accident in Iowa, when the aviator was killed and the machine smashed. Secretary G. B. Fisher telegraphed for another machine to arrive here Thursday and a Curtis biplane, accompanied by an aviator, and three assistants, arrived on schedule. Late in the afternoon Thursday, when the machine was about to make its first ascent, excitement ran high, as most of the people on the grounds had never seen a flying machine. A place was cleared of people, and everything being in readiness for the flight, Mr. Ludvig, the aviator, took his seat in the machine. It did not rise more than ten feet in the air, and he preferred not to make a second trial, as the assistants had not had sufficient time to set up the machine. The crowds followed him around like human flies, and he started his second flight. The farmers had been asked to move their teams from a certain place, but they had not done so, and when the machine had just gotten a good start, it dipped down, falling on two vehicles. No one was hurt, but the machine was considerably damaged, too much to be repaired in time for flights on Friday. Although the crowd was very disappointed in not seeing the machine rise higher, they were glad that the accident did not result more seriously. Some of the aviator's relatives came from a distance Friday, expecting to see him fly. Although he has been an aviator for some time and has made many successful flights, they had never seen them, and of course did not this time.

A very interesting part of the fair

this year was the ball games. Ontario and La Farge played a close game Friday afternoon, the latter winning by a score of 3 to 2. Viola and Viroqua (that is to say La Crosse and Winona) played Saturday afternoon. Viola had hired a number of players and Viroqua had gotten practically all men from outside. The latter didn't do a thing to Viola, and when the final score was placed it read, 15 to 2 in favor of Viroqua.

On Thursday, the best day of the fair, the gate receipts were upwards of $1,600, and a large number of tickets were sold on Main street, in addition. The receipts from the grandstand were nearly $200 on Thursday, and also on Friday. Financially, as well as otherwise, the 1911 fair is universally considered a success.

ROSSINI FAMOUS AS A WIT

Some of the Whimsicalities With Which the Great Composer Made Life Jollier.

Rossini's witticisms bubbled forth at all times and under all circumstances, says Musical Opinion. On one occasion a gentleman called upon him to enlist his aid in procuring for him an engagement at the opera. He was a drummer and had taken the precaution to bring his instrument. Rossini said he would hear him "play," and it was agreed that he should show off in the overture to "Semiramide."

Now, the very first bar of the overture contained a tremolo for the drum, and when this had been performed the player remarked, "Now I have a rest of 28 bars—these, of course, I will skip." This was too good a chance to be lost. "O, no," said the composer, "by all means count the 28 bars; I particularly want to hear those." Rossini's whimsicality extended even to his birthday. Having been born on February 29, in leap year, he had, of course, a birthday once in four years, and when he was seventy-two he facetiously invited his friends to celebrate his eighteenth birthday.

The late Sir Arthur Sullivan made his acquaintance in Paris. One morning, when Sullivan called to see him, he found him trying over a small piece of music. "What is that?" asked Sullivan. "It's my dog's birthday," replied, very seriously, "and I write a little piece for him every year."

When Rossini was once rehearsing one of his operas in a small theater in Italy he noticed that the horn was out of tune. "Who is that playing the horn in such an unholy way?" he demanded. "It is I," said a tremulous voice. "Ah, it is you, is it? Well, go right home." It was his own father!

LOEB MAY MANAGE CAMPAIGN FOR TAFT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Collector William Loeb, Jr., of the port of New York, former private secretary to President Roosevelt, may be manager of President Taft's re-election campaign. It was learned today that one of the subjects under consideration between Loeb and his friends when he visited Washington last week was the advisability of his acceptance of the chairmanship of the republican national committee.

Loeb's services are wanted by some of the president's friends because of the political ability he demonstrated while serving at the White House and also because he is regarded as a progressive who might do much to heal factional wounds.

He has not yet been formally offered the chairmanship, but it is known that such a request will be made soon unless President Taft unexpectedly calls upon Charles D. Hilles, his private secretary, to act as his personal manager.

WIFE KILLS HUSBAND WITH OWN REVOLVER

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 26.—Charles A. Patterson, 27 years old, a patient in the Agnes Memorial sanitarium, was shot and instantly killed yesterday by his wife.

It is alleged that Patterson first attempted to kill his wife, and that he drew his revolver and fired, the shot missing her. She asserts that she grappled with him and in the struggle that ensued the revolver was discharged, the bullet entering his heart.

It was stated that the shooting grew out of a family quarrel. It was learned that Patterson had filed suit in the district court in Chicago for $25,000 against Emil Strauss, a millionaire clothier, for alienation of his wife's affections. Mrs. Patterson is 25 years old; she has no relatives in Denver.

To cover his crimes, the modern sinner often wears the top-coat of church membership over the cloak of charity.

Keeps Your Stove "Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish once-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—What should be the most successful football season since the rules were changed so radically in the winter of 1905-06, opened officially in the central west when the conference squads began practice. The number of important contests scheduled, the few alterations made by the rules committee last winter, and the wealth of promising material which the major college coaches will have at their disposal should make this year a banner season for the popular sport.

The rule which was passed last season by the conference faculty representatives making it imperative for each conference eleven to meet at least four other teams in the organization is one of the best measures passed by this body in a long time. The ruling is certain to result in deciding the strongest team, and will do away with the diversified opinion as to their strength. By this ruling the comparative score method will not be used.

To Play Both Teams

Although Michigan is out of the fold—a fact to be regretted by every true lover of college athletics—there is one game which will furnish a line on the comparative strength of Michigan and other members of the conference. Nebraska will meet both Minnesota and Michigan, and the results of these contests should go a long way in determining the relative strength of the Wolverines and Gophers.

In all justice to Minnesota, it might be said that the Gophers meet Nebraska early in the season, when the big team of the northwest will not have reached its height of football perfection. Michigan will play the Cornhuskers on the last Saturday in November, at a time when the Yost machine should have every cog working in unison. The Wolverines will have had the experience of hard games and Yost will have plenty of opportunities to bolster up any weakness displayed in the earlier games.

Intersectional contests of great importance also will be played. Two big Eastern elevens will come west in an endeavor to demonstrate the superiority of Eastern football. Pennsylvania, one of the strongest teams in the East last year, will play Michigan at Ann Arbor on Nov. 18, while Cornell will come to play Chicago on Marshall field on the same day.

Predicts Strong Team

Last year the Maroons were beaten by Cornell, while Michigan held Penn to a 0 to 0 score and outplayed the Quakers for three-quarters of one of the most bitterly fought contests ever seen on historic Franklin field. Pennsylvania will have a strong aggregation this season, while Yost has been credited with saying he will have one of the most powerful teams in the history of his career at Michigan.

Cornell will again be presented by a strong eleven, while the exact strength of the Maroons cannot be determined at this time owing to the uncertainty of several reliable men returning to college. At any rate, Chicago's prospects cannot be figured as any too bright and Coach Stagg seems to be in for a strenuous season in developing an eleven which will make a successful gridiron season.

Illinois, Cornell, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Indiana and Purdue will journey to Chicago to meet the Maroons on Marshall field. The Midwayites' only contests away from home is with Minnesota at Minneapolis on Nov. 4. This is one of the best schedules Coach Stagg has framed in years and if he can muster any kind of a team the Maroons will have a lot in their favor by playing on their home field.

Minnesota and Illinois, the teams which played through the conference season last fall without a defeat, will have a chance to settle their question of superiority this fall at Urbana on Nov. 25. At the close of last year's season each aggregation claimed the conference championship, and although the Gophers defeated teams which Illinois met by larger scores, the downstaters were entitled to a lot of credit.

This year Illinois will be without the services of Butler and Twiss, all-Western guard and center, while Minnesota has lost Johnson and McGovern, fullback and quarterback, men who earned places on the Western honorary eleven. Both teams have lost several substitutes, but the above mentioned men are the most serious losses to their respective teams. Minnesota will be led this year by Pickering, a powerful player, who was kept out of the play for a short time last year by an operation. "Bull" Roberts will lead the orange and blue team and in all probability will play at fullback.

Strong Minnesota team. Minnesota should have a powerful eleven, and if coached properly should have another successful year. In the past the Gophers always have played a high class brand of football all through the season, but generally something has happened in one of its most important contests which has resulted in the defeat of the team, thereby marring an otherwise successful season. For the last two years Michigan has taken Minnesota into camp when it appeared that the Gophers were the stronger eleven.

With the wealth of promising material which Coach John Richards will have at his command this season, Wisconsin should have its best team since 1905. According to reports from Madison, there are several star players who will answer the call on Wednesday. Every true lover of football is "pulling" for the Badgers to have a strong aggregation. In the old days Wisconsin always was at the top of the list and fighting to the last ditch to win the Western championship. For the last five or six years Wisconsin's brand of football has fallen below the standard.

Northwestern will again be under the able tutelage of Coach Hammett, one of the most conscientious and thorough teachers of football in this section. In face of many obstacles, some of which might have discouraged any coach, Hammett has worked hard, and his efforts have been a credit to the institution.

Prospects Not Bright. Indiana's football fortunes again will be guided by Jimmy Sheldon, but the Hoosiers' prospects cannot be said to be as bright as they were a year ago. Graduation and three-year rule have greatly depleted the ranks of veterans and Sheldon will have a task on his hands in developing a team which will equal the record made by the one last season. Purdue and Iowa, other members of the conference cannot be said to have bright prospects, although the

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Between Promises and Actual Results

Promises won't overcome hair trouble. The manufacturers of Newbro's Herpicide promises nothing which is not justified by an intelligent use of this preparation. The desired and ultimately becomes an accomplished fact. This is the reason that Herpicide has thousands of satisfied friends all over the world.

By keeping the scalp clean and healthy and destroying the dandruff germ, Newbro's Herpicide makes beautiful hair. Herpicide prevents the hair from falling and allows it to grow unhindered and naturally except in cases of chronic baldness which is incurable.

outlook at both institutions is much better than it was a year ago. Coach Hawley, the former Dartmouth star, will have charge at Iowa, while Purdue will be coached by Horr, the former Syracuse tackle.

CONAN DOYLE AT HIS BEST

The story reading world seems to be unanimous in the verdict that Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is at his best in his Sherlock Holmes stories. The Chicago Record-Herald is now in the act of breaking another record by printing in its columns all the Sherlock Holmes stories ever written, both short and long. Some of the best are still to come. It is the only paper in Chicago now running Sherlock Holmes stories.

The Record-Herald has only recently begun on the "Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes," a series of thirteen of these famous detective tales. The stories, which have been appearing only on Sundays, are now to run right along through every day of the week until completed. This series is to be followed by two long Sherlock Holmes serials—"A Study in Scarlet" and "The Sign of the Four." Many persons are taking advantage of this chance to read the world's best detective stories.

Sherlock Holmes has the honor of being the most widely known character in fiction. The fascination of his adventures and of his marvelous detective powers is felt by all classes of readers. You can always find some of the best popular fiction of the day in The Record-Herald, but this Conan Doyle series is something out of the ordinary, even for that enterprising paper.

A charge of plagiarism is the highest compliment that can be bestowed upon the work of any writer.

FINGER PRINT MAY UNRAVEL MYSTERY

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 26.—Hypnotism as a means of establishing a working basis in the Wayne-Burnham sextuple murder mystery is being considered by the police authorities today.

In an effort to find a motive for the crime, it is proposed to send for an expert to exercise his powers over Antonio Donatelli, the suspect under arrest.

In spite of the fact that the finger print tests of both Donatelli and Arthur J. Burnham failed, the police declare it is improbable that Donatelli will be released immediately. Reports that they have evidence indicating that Donatelli can throw some light on the mystery are not confirmed.

Meanwhile the general public is inclining to the theory that the six murders were committed by a maniac without motive and merely to satisfy an insane blood lust. Though the police do not deny that this belief, they do not deny that they have very little evidence indicating anything else.

All men who tip their hats to the ladies are possibly not gentlemen, but it's a mark of good breeding which no real gentleman ever neglects.
